RETURN TO MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE TREATMENT

Fort Mill Telephone Company, d/b/a Comporium Communications ("Fort Mill"), respectfully submits this Return to the "Motion for Protective Treatment and Basis for Filing Exhibit 3 as Trade Secret," filed by Time Warner Cable Information Services (South Carolina), LLC, doing business as Time Warner Cable ("TWCIS"), in the above-referenced docket.

Rule 103.829(A) of the Rules of the Public Service Commission of South Carolina ("Commission") allows for returns to be filed within ten (10) days after service of a motion. Fort Mill intervened in this proceeding on September 10, 2008, and has not yet been served with a copy of the motion. Therefore, this Return is timely.

In its Motion, TWCIS requests protective treatment of Exhibit 3 to its Application in this proceeding. Exhibit 3 is described as TWCIS' 2007 Telecommunications Company Annual Report. TWCIS claims the information contained in the Annual Report is not readily available to persons external to TWCIS, and contains confidential and commercially-sensitive information from which its competitors may derive economic value. TWCIS asserts the Company's Annual Report is a "trade secret" as that term is used in the South Carolina Trade Secrets Act, S.C. Code Ann. § 39-8-20(5).

In response to the Motion, Fort Mill respectfully submits:

1. Commission Regulation 103-612(1) provides as follows:

Annual Report. Each telephone utility operating in the State shall file an annual report with the commission and provide a copy to the ORS, giving such information as the commission may direct.

The Telecommunications Company Annual Report form, along with instructions, can be found on the website of the Office of Regulatory Staff ("ORS"). The reports are required to be filed by April 1 of each calendar year for the prior calendar year. Therefore, TWCIS either filed, or was required to file, a Telecommunications Company Annual Report with the Commission on April 1, 2008, for calendar year 2007. An electronic search of the Commission's docket management system by the undersigned counsel did not turn up any related motion for protective treatment.

2. In any event, TWCIS did provide a copy of its 2007 Telecommunications Company Annual Report to ORS on or around April 1, 2008. Upon information and belief, TWCIS did not make a motion for protective treatment of the Annual Report or take other appropriate steps to protect the confidentiality of the Annual Report at the time it provided a copy of the Annual Report to ORS.

3. Based upon the foregoing, Fort Mill believes that TWCIS has already provided a copy of its 2007 Telecommunications Company Annual Report to ORS, a public agency. Therefore, the Annual Report is a public record as defined in the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code Ann. § 30-4-20(c). It would be futile for the Commission to grant protective treatment to something that is already in the public domain.

4. Furthermore, the Annual Report does not meet the definition of a "trade secret" under state law. Even if TWCIS' characterization of the information (confidential and commercially-sensitive information from which its competitors may derive economic value) were true, TWCIS has omitted a crucial element of the statutory definition. Under state law, information can be considered a "trade secret" only if it "is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy." S.C. Code Ann. 39-8-20(5)(a)(ii). In this case, TWCIS has filed the document with a public body, thereby making it a public record. Because TWCIS has already placed the information in the public domain by making it available on an unprotected basis to a public body, TWCIS cannot reasonably maintain that the information constitutes a trade secret under state law.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated herein, Fort Mill Telephone Company, d/b/a Comporium Communications, respectfully requests that the Commission deny TWCIS' Motion for Protective Treatment of Exhibit 3 to its Application in the above-referenced matter; and grant such other and further relief as is just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
